smothering under the blanket warmth of a hundred healing arms sinking into the cushion softness of a thousand assuring breasts burning from the thrilling touch of a million mattress motes till awaking light

pinches night

changing
blanket to hail
cushion to stone
mattress to nail

On The Dover Train...

For a brief few miles
she rode with me,
this raven-tressed
eye-shadowed
office lass
aspiring to be
another Burtonspouse,
answered my Dover query
uncertainly
around her morning paper
and now
passes out nameless
to me
into the long
lists of those whom I'll
not even know
I think
on Judgement Day.
