Lake at Fall Sunrise

You say you missed the lake this morning,
Where were you, when smoked wavering water
Was light in cloudless skylic Hues of blues, Shades of indifference, you defend
Not perceiving the majestic shaded pool of blue-Bacchanalian bittered whining blues, crying out to be seen not heard.

Greg Ginegan

Naked We Shall Be

washed on the beach--- falling with the waves kissing the ends of the horizon with the sun
lying in the shore grass
my life
spilling into yours
I shall run with the wind
