This letter from the editor is available in Verbum: https://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/verbum/vol13/iss2/1
Letter from the Editor

Dear Reader,

Volume 13, issue no. 2 of the journal of the Department of Religious Studies, Verbum is right now in your hands: enjoy its contents and then find the various articles, essays, poems, photos, and much more on-line for the full effect of color, digitization, and other surprises. Did you know that you can actually check the few or many times an item published in one of the 26 issues of Verbum has been accessed by individuals from other parts of the world?

In this issue you will be pleased to learn what the difference between the Jewish Tanak and the Christian Old Testament is, read about former Fisher Faculty, Dr. Crombach’s quest to find and replace in a more visible place the bronze statue of St. John Fisher commissioned by the Fisher class of 1965, and enjoy some lovely poems by students and faculty members.

The Alumni Corner returns bringing us news about 4 former Fisher students, the two couples of Jodi and Jon, and George and Amy. The central focus of the journal remains Essays on Religion, where you will find students’ papers on a film and on the current ecological crisis that we all need to respond to in a great variety of positive actions.

Before putting this copy down or passing it on to a family member or friend, take a brief mental detour to read how students view the world around them from the vantage point of their faith, or the way they reminisce about the influence their parents had on their human/spiritual growth.

Last but not least, discover who was Irving Singer, and follow the intricate presentation of a former Religious Studies Minor of the criteria followed by the early Christian Church in the formation of the Canon of the New Testament.

On the behalf of the whole Department of Religious Studies, I wish you good and thoughtful reading, asking everyone – as always – to give some thought to contributing a writing for next year’s volume 14 of Verbum.

Dr. Rev. Michael Costanzo
Table of Contents

St. John Fisher at the College
- Execution of St. John Fisher
- Saint of Steel
- The Martyrdom of St. John Fisher

The World Seen through the Lens of Faith
- The Power of Faith

Rest 496 – Works in Progress
- New Testament Biblical Apocrypha and the Exclusion of Apocalypses from the Canon

Poetry Bend
- Gifts of Heaven
- Faith as Roots
- The Grad School Hermit
- Blueberries

Essays on Religion
- The Book Thief: Through the Eyes of Death
- The Ecological Crisis: Questioning Christianity’s Contribution
- Global Warming and Religion

Parent and Child
- The Building Blocks of My Faith
- Walking in My Parents’ Steps

Faculty Essay
- A Note on the Jewish Tanak and the Christian Old Testament
  Irving Singer (1925-2015)

Alumni Corner
- Amy and George
- Jodi and Jon

Diversity Vision
- How Can Different People All Fight the Same Battle if They Seem to Have Nothing in Common
So, good Lord, do now in like manner again with thy Church militant;
Change and make soft and slippery earth into hard stones;
Set in thy Church strong and mighty pillars that may suffer and endure
Great labours, watching, poverty, thirst, hunger, cold and heat;
Which also shall not fear the threatings of princes,
Persecution, neither death but always persuade and think
With themself to suffer with a good will,
Slanders, shame and all kinds of torments
For the glory and laud of Thy Holy Name.

(This prayer was spoken in the last year of Henry VII; it was fulfilled
In the author’s person twenty-seven years later on Tower Hill.)

[From the Preface (June 15, 1914) by J.S. Phillimore, M.A. to the 2-volume
Commentary on the Seven Penitential Psalms
By John Fisher, Bishop of Rochester
First published in A.D. 1509]