Faith as Roots

Faith as Roots

At the bottom of a hill
Sits a small seed
It sits small but still
When the winds hit the sea

It holds its patch of ground
With one hand dug deep
Through all the nasty weather
This seed begins to creep

It never stops believing
In that deep dug hand
Upon the strongest root
A forest can stand

Faith can be our roots
This world one day will see
It can be our house of bricks
When "the wolf" begins to breathe
