TO SHARE A LOVE

Not too many summers ago
We walked along country roads,
Through fields of grass and grace
And we began to share a love.

We embraced under blue skies,
Caressed by the green and golden earth
And we made love on the beaches
Lit by the false sun of night.

Our love is something to believe in,
Existing out of time, for all time.
God shares His Heaven with us, alone.
Suffering and death seem very far away.

Not too many summers ago
We loved and lived our love,
Because at the very end
All there is, is love.
