Dark Angel

Dark Angel
you cast a shadow on my heart Normality shatters
Black and white days have light but there is no sun to warm me.
Dark Angel,
why do you choose me?

Your darkness troubles me My heart is cold where you’ve touched me your words speak of love, but your actions are hollow and echo insincerity.

I long to teach you, to have you feel love, touch passion Futile hopes to bring you into a world you fear I ache to draw you into me, to give you what you’ve never known But it is no use, your life is too far into the shadows.

Dark Angel
I am pulled to you but I cannot come you live in lies and empty promises your hands on my body leave a disturbing chill Making love to metal machinery
