Huntington Pool

Snow
does not fall
on Huntington Pool
It grows
and decays
as it does
in all of Syracuse Skateboards
guided by sneakers
spray melted snow water against the pool house walls each spring
and in summer
chlorine and children
pour in
and spread out
the water
Each swims toward friends in the deep end
and wades to the shallow
to pee
Four-letter words
carved with locker pins tickle their softened feet as they wrap themselves with towels
marked Children of the City
