Summer Courses

I saw him today-
A beacon of light
sitting two rows over, one up.
God, his legs--
I’m a leg-lover,
and his were like
two white, strong beams of perfection.
Slender at the ankles,
curving up
flesh enclosing muscled calves.
Even the hairs are spaced just right....

Wait-- he’s just spoken up--
Wow.
Awe-inspiring legs
and insightful observation.
Quite a tempting combination.
I imagine touching those legs
gracefully with the arch of my foot, and I ache for them to be languidly tangled with mine.
Oh, to know, to touch; taste and smell
his glorious mode of transportation.
