Welcome to the Winter 1996 issue of The Angle!! This is our second issue of the year and we look forward to publishing two more issues in the Spring. I would like to thank everyone who submitted their work for this issue and to congratulate Emilio Lopez, Kelly Callahan, and Katie McNamara on their prize-winning submissions.

The Angle accepts original poetry, short stories, essays, and short plays, as well as artwork and photography, from SJFC students, faculty, and staff. The submission deadline for the next issue is Friday, February 7, 1997 at 3pm. All submissions must be typed and must include the author’s name, address, and telephone number. Submissions should be dropped off in the Writing Center (Science 225). Once again, we will be offering prizes for the three best submissions.

I would like to thank the members of The Angle staff for all of their hard work and dedication. I would like to extend a special thanks to Kerry Kutzuba for her outstanding editorial assistance and to Jonathan Sherwood and Mike Skinner for their invaluable computer assistance. I would also like to extend a special thanks to Dr. Theresa Nicolay for all of her continuous support and encouragement. Each of these people worked very hard to make this issue a reality.

I encourage each of you to consider submitting your work to The Angle. It is a wonderful opportunity to receive recognition for all of your hard work.

Enjoy!!!
