1997

Preliminary Pages

No Author

How has open access to Fisher Digital Publications benefited you?
Follow this and additional works at: http://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/angle
Part of the Creative Writing Commons

Recommended Citation
Available at: http://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/angle/vol1997/iss4/1

This document is posted at http://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/angle/vol1997/iss4/1 and is brought to you for free and open access by Fisher Digital Publications at St. John Fisher College. For more information, please contact fisherpub@sjfc.edu.
Preliminary Pages

Cover Page Footnote
Appeared in the issue: April 1997.
The Angle
April 1997
St. John Fisher College
The Angle

April 1997

Editor-in-Chief
Jeanne M. Moose

Assistant Editor
Heather Ruffalo

Submission Review Committee
Katharina Jarnam
M. J. Suppa
Mohammed Khan
Esha Krewtar

Faculty Advisor
Dr. Theresa Nicolay

Cover Art
Mohammed Khan

Special Thanks
Juan Canto
M. J. Suppa
The Writers

Sabrina K. Beach
Monica J. Bradbury
Katharine D. Jarnam
Mohammed Khan
Lisa Kreutter
Melissa Kriwok
Matthew J. McGowan
Katie McNamara
John P. Parungao
Heather Ruffalo
Anne Steger
Suzanne M. Wood
The Writers

Sabrina K. Beach
Monica J. Bradbury
Katharine D. Farnam
Mohammed Khan
Lisa Kreutter
Melissa Kriwix
Matthew J. McGowan
Katie McNamara
John P. Parungao
Heather Ruffalo
Anne Steger
Suzanne M. Wood
A Letter from the Editor

This issue of The Angle has been the most difficult one to put together this year because it is my final issue as Editor and the last opportunity that I will have to work with such a group of uniquely talented individuals. This magazine has been a major part of my life for the past year and it's hard to believe that it's over.

Thoughts of graduation and moving on to graduate school bring mixed emotions of accomplishment and uncertainty. Sometimes I'm so excited that I can't sit still, but other times, I am overcome with sadness at the thought of leaving. Fisher has been my home for the past four years and I have done things here that I never thought I was capable of doing, such as being the Editor of The Angle. My perception and outlook on life have changed and I now know that I am capable of accomplishing anything I set my mind to do.

There are many people on this campus who have helped me on this journey. I would like to take this opportunity to thank each of them for their unfailing support and understanding. It means a great deal to me. I would also like to thank the dedicated staff members of The Angle. This literary magazine would not have been such a success this year if it weren't for these people who gave up many long nights to make this endeavor possible.

I would, however, like to extend an extra special thank you to Dr. Theresa Nicolay. She has always been there, providing support and encouragement, and an ear when I simply needed to vent some frustrations or happiness. She even put up with my endless questions about The Angle and worked with me to find the best possible solutions to our difficulties. This magazine would not be a success without her guidance and I would not be writing this if it hadn't been for her pushing me to reach beyond what I thought were my limits and try something new.

Being the Editor this year has made my life at Fisher complete because it has given me a sense of fulfillment and accomplishment. It is with great privilege that I pass the torch of Editor of The Angle to my friend Heather Ruffalo. I wish all of you continued success in your future endeavors.
A Letter from the Editor

This issue of The Angle has been the most difficult one to put together this year because it is my final issue as Editor and the last opportunity that I will have to work with such a group of uniquely talented individuals. This magazine has been a major part of my life for the past year and it’s hard to believe that it’s over.

Thoughts of graduation and moving on to graduate school bring mixed emotions of accomplishment and uncertainty. Sometimes I'm so excited that I can’t sit still, but other times, I am overcome with sadness at the thought of leaving. Fisher has been my home for the past four years and I have done things here that I never thought I was capable of doing, such as being the Editor of The Angle. My perception and outlook on life have changed and I now know that I am capable of accomplishing anything I set my mind to do.

There are many people on this campus who have helped me on this journey. I would like to take this opportunity to thank each of them for their unfailing support and understanding. It means a great deal to me. I would also like to thank the dedicated staff members of The Angle. This literary magazine would not have been such a success this year if it weren’t for these people who gave up many long nights to make this endeavor possible.

I would, however, like to extend an extra special thank you to Dr. Theresa Nicolay. She has always been there, providing support and encouragement, and an ear when I simply needed to vent some frustrations or happiness. She even put up with my endless questions about The Angle and worked with me to find the best possible solutions to our difficulties. This magazine would not be a success without her guidance and I would not be writing this if it hadn’t been for her pushing me to reach beyond what I thought were my limits and try something new.

Being the Editor this year has made my life at Fisher complete because it has given me a sense of fulfillment and accomplishment. It is with great privilege that I pass the torch of Editor of The Angle to my friend Heather Ruffalo. I wish all of you continued success in your future endeavors.