A Realization

His character astounded me.
His vast knowledge on most everything
a tool for dealing with a world infested with self-centered, ignorant people
people who speak only of what appeals to them.
A narrow, shallow world.
ALWAYS MAINTAIN THE UPPER HAND.
The dark eyes probed my brain
each time we spoke searching for the thoughts I may keep hidden even from him.
His eyes twinkle when I smile
perhaps a reflection of my own
but my mirror is cracked
my vision of myself
often inaccurate and flawed.
His insecurities equal mine
yet his are not as clear to me as my own.
It's amazing how you can give advice to someone whose roughness mirrors yours.
Rather hypocritical
AREN'T WE ALL?
