RICHARD MAULFAIR

OLD BLUE

life is these jeans
wrinkled to my body
tough to the world
but frayed at the bottom

life is blue
prewashed for style
with big pockets
for lots of baggage

life is comfortable
sometimes torn
often faded
but always blue

DIANDRA LYNCH

MY STORY

after Wendy Jean Birch

My feet tell my story
the hundreds of miles they’ve tread on beaches mountains and stones small and slender creamy white hold me up support me like mother like father lead me though darkness and light stumble over rough spots slip through the slippery mud straw slashed cuts from the fields of my youth and rocks climbing blisters remind me forever of where I have been.
