Run from the dreams
   little girl little girl
I know that they hurt you so much Run through the forest, but watch out for the thorns
They will prick you and soon after, attack

   An attack on your mind
   little girl little girl
Trying to break you and sail you downstream An attack aimed to kill, of your blood they want more Your emotions so pure and so clean

   But don’t turn around
   little girl little girl
If you do, you will end up like them
Run from the pain, from the hurt in your brain
And one day, it all, you’ll forget
