The Story of my Moral

The angry dragon grins as she curls around my gaze she sings along my spine and sinks into my pain The demons praise the fates as they wait for me to fall they grapple at my eyes and forsake me as their doll Your kisses are too sensless as they twist around my tongue they sting the liquid silence and rip into the sun My deadly sins are laughing as they wrap around my wrists the break inside my body and bite into my risks The dying griffin screams as he suffers at my grace he digs into my flesh and I sink into his pain
is to break before you fall to drink the blood of heavensent before you drown in awe
