I saw Jesus today
He was in the small child who lifted his head and grinned at me
I saw him
In the man who kindly offered me the $1.50 I needed to get home on the subway
He was there
In the woman who stopped on the road to ask if I was having car trouble
He was present
In the police car that followed me home and waited for me to get inside
I saw Jesus today
He showed himself through the woman who whispered, “God Bless.”
He was around
In the friend who gave me encouraging words
He was there
In the phone call I received where I heard the words “I love you.”
I saw Jesus Today

I looked for him closely.
