PHOENIX

BY JAMIE LASDA

(making little creamer pyramids on the table) twenty minutes late
i've never been any good at being on time (no no no no no)
so i owe you now
anything, name it
call us a game
take me to fame
whatever you want, i'm ears (elbows lean on table)
is everything so skewed?
my dreams stir with pen
i plan to write
no, i plan to tell
no, i plan to live (sips black coffee)
then you told me a tale
a pretty little tale of white horses and dandelions and all the young love filling the story
... that's always the ending, that it ends (fidgets with straw wrapper) i like to think of quirk as hobby lust as loss
and love as a four letter word what are your plans
i plan to write
writing as word
every word strung together change a life with a phrase, that's what i want (bill, please)
