THE FLIGHT OF AN ANGEL

BY DR. MICHAEL TIFFANY

A glorious day,
A tragic day,
The decision had been rendered.
To place this angel in God's arms
So small and oh, so tender.

The journey began so long ago
It's memory has since faded.
We scaled some daunting mountains
Through troubled waters sometimes waded.

A late August day,
A glorious day,
The decision had been rendered.
To place this angel in our arms
So small and oh, so tender.

One tiny plain photograph
Was all that God need send.
To make us fall in love
With the angel he had found.

A December day,
A blissful day,
This angel grew her wings.
She and Mommy flew home to me
And now the heavens sing.
