CHILD'S PLAY
BY SELENA COCHRAN

ghostly silence crept in like high tide in spring, flooding, subduing.
spilling
over echoes of playful banter. one, two, buckle my shhh---
until dread and fear danced blissfully in the throats of ashen’s audience
until
panic clamored mercilessly in the womb’s of deadened nurturers mommy, is that gun real?
sleek ebony limbs
  glisten majestically in outstretched arms. taunting, preying.
vacillating
betwixt young and old. eeny, meeny, miny...moe!
until
agony’s joy erupts in thunderous applause
until
ire and bliss entwine amidst waning cries for mercy mommy, you’ve got ketchup all over your shirt.
