BOAT ASHORE

BY ERIN WAFFLE

Inspired by "Towing a Boat" by Monet

Waves rolling under the golden haze,
The dilapidated boat wallows.
Stranded in its lonely hour,
Is anyone watching from the window?

The indigo ripples disappear into the distance,
Bleeding into the rose clouds in the sky.
Dusk is tiptoeing near
Is anyone watching from the window?

Damp beads roll from the brow,
The cool whispers of autumn become crisp,
A final tug to the bow with a heavy breath.
Is anyone watching from the window?
