Solemnly wandering a heavily trodden path you find yourself angered by those who last traveled Utter disregard for the sanctity of the unburdened trail made obvious by other actions continuing to fail Falling from a mighty oak, the reasoning of wonder... holding it in the palm of your hand it seems so small The winds sweep through carrying it beyond the horizon and suddenly it exists waiting to be reached Attainment of a further sense of understanding and being yields the enlightenment that stretches far past seeing In time my friend...in due time... it will all be revealed without ever being hidden Decisions void of cluttered thought process lead you toward a destination desired within Once reached you may quench your ever-beckoning thirst temporarily alleviating any anomalies present But soon the path unveiled once again sends tantalizing signals demanding your return You rise to your feet begin walking once more with another destination in mind but you're really not sure
