This reminds me of a dream I had that bled out the one you took hostage and slowly slit its throat turn the sheets down and I will come in armor I have seen your face like the light in stars and because of it I'd sell my soul just to feel you breathe I won't lie I'm still kissing the darkness what you do comes on like a raging flood a flood of morning sun that tears through last night.

we were proof that beautiful things can be made in the dark.
