BLUE WOMAN

BY DILLON LYNN

The way your eyes crack open with laughter and commotion.
The way your lips hug mine
with infinite devotion.

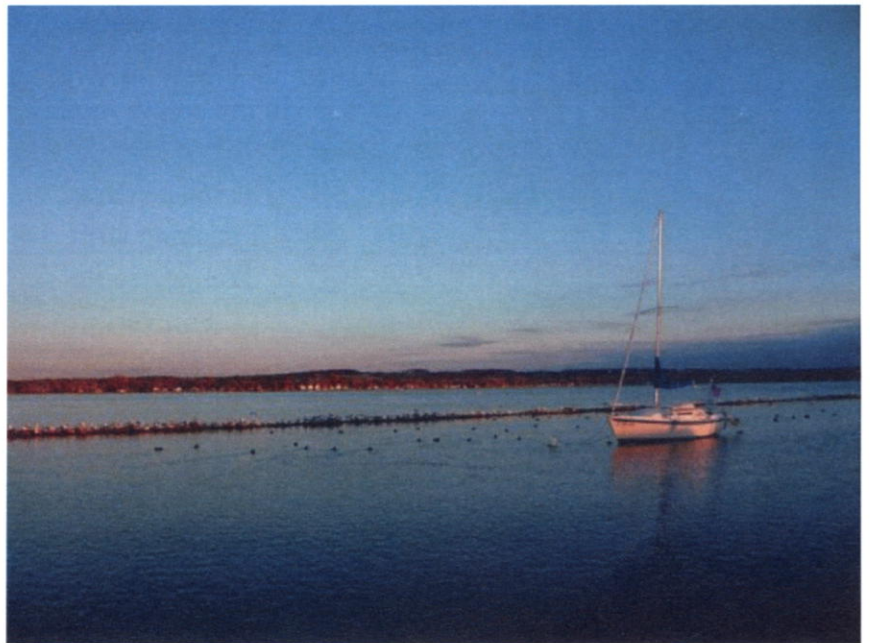

Reminds me of the autumn breeze
that sweeps through the trees.
A whisper of love from mother to seed.

From mother to me.
From river to sea.
Flowing endlessly,
Flying gently.

Like the rolling white puffs passing by,
Frozen crystals in the sky.
Just a wisp of her blue highway,
I wait for the ride to come my way.

Take me higher,
Falling Faster.

Blissfully dancing
on the crescents of laughter.
