To this day I wonder why.

What has kept me going?
The fire is burning,
Water has yet to quench.
My thirst or desire
Are yet to be satiated.

I live, but not for me I die.
I have tried and often failed.
I have worked but not succeeded.
I have played but gotten tired.
I have danced without a song.

Learning and living.

The knowledge poured in.
Funneled and filtered,
Stirred and sifted.
I let it slide, slowly
Into me.

My body is here.

Soul and spirit driven,
A stoic vision
To live according to Him.
I try, but never faultless;
Always one is forgiven.

The end is coming.

Without knowledge to me,
I am blind to the day.
When I will pass,
Not unto death;
But life again.
