YELLOW ROOM

Cold bubbling water
The taste of tea on my tongue
Vibrating, my surroundings stretch
An elastic reality pulls into a yellow room
This world is not my own
I’m trapped, suffocated by yellow space

I look around, unable to see a way out
Voices call to me from far away
Shadows in a distance
   A way out?

But the yellow closes in around me
As I am suffocated by infinity
What’s this?
A window?
My way out?
   Reality weaves its way around me
   The yellow fades to black
   Black and yellow worlds hug

A double-helix universe, a ladder
   Leads me back home
